About Legislative Council Staff

Colorado Legislative Council Staff, the nonpartisan research agency of the Colorado General Assembly, is seeking a skilled and highly motivated professional to join our team. This position will be housed in our economics section, which is comprised of a team of economists, other social scientists, and data scientists performing policy analysis and revenue forecasting for the state legislature.

Legislative Council Staff is proud to be an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, national origin, genetics, disability, age, or veteran status. We are committed to increasing the diversity of our staff. Therefore, we encourage responses from people of diverse backgrounds and abilities.

Since 1953, the Colorado Legislative Council Staff (LCS) has provided nonpartisan products and services to the legislature and the public to support and inform the policy making process, preserve the legislative institution, and promote transparency. You will be joining an organization with a rich history that is driven by our mission, vision, and values. As a nonpartisan staff organization, our work is guided and informed by our commitment to:

- Service
- the Legislative Institution
- Excellence
- Integrity
- Respect
- Innovation

When you join LCS, you can expect:

- to fill a vital role in supporting Colorado's lawmakers to serve our state and uphold the democratic process;
- to join a supportive and collegial culture that is driven by our shared mission, vision, and values;
- to work for an organization committed to balancing our important work for the state legislature with employees' lives outside of work;
- to be supported in your continual professional development and growth; and
- to work for an organization that recognizes the unique talents, backgrounds, and contributions of our individual employees.

Job Summary

Primary responsibilities. Primary responsibilities of the position include analyzing and forecasting state and local government revenue sources, caseloads, and other items of importance to the General Assembly; verbally presenting information on various economic and tax-related issues; writing economic reports; analyzing and writing fiscal analyses ("fiscal notes") on proposed legislation; and responding to questions from legislators, lobbyists, government officials, and the public. Responsibilities of the position also include writing research papers, working with special legislative study committees during the legislative interim, and researching and writing portions of the "Blue Book" voter guide on statewide election issues.

Required knowledge, skills, and abilities. A successful candidate will:

- have the ability to work in a nonpartisan manner in a partisan environment, and to provide objective information regardless of the issue or one's personal opinions;
- have effective oral and written communication skills;
- have strong analytical, data analysis, and research abilities;
- have excellent time management skills and be able to work well under time pressure;
- be able to work independently as well as with a team; and
- be proficient in word processing, Excel, and statistical software.

A candidate's skills and experience using one or more data management, data visualization, or data analysis software packages, such as R, EViews, Tableau, SQL and/or ArcGIS, would be assets to our team.

Educational requirement and experience. The minimum educational requirement is a Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in economics or a related field. Further academic achievement, such as a graduate or doctorate degree in economics or a related field, and/or experience analyzing economic data and writing research briefs, would be assets to our team.

Salary, benefits, and work location. The salary range for this position is $60,000 to $80,000 per year, with salary level within this range commensurate with experience. Legislative Council Staff employees are not members of the state personnel system.

Legislative Council Staff is committed to providing employees with a strong and competitive benefits package that supports you, your health, and your family. Our benefits package includes:

- PERA retirement benefits, including PERA Defined Benefit Plan, PERA Defined Contribution Plan, plus 401K and 457 plans;
- Medical, dental, and vision insurance coverage;
- Automatic short-term and optional long-term disability coverage;
- Life and AD&D insurance;
- Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs);
- A variety of discounts on services and products available through the State of Colorado's Work-Life Employment Discount Program; and
- Credit Union of Colorado membership eligibility

Our flexible leave policies include:

- A minimum of three weeks of annual leave, based on tenure, and accrued on a monthly basis;
- Eleven annual paid holidays;
- Sick leave;
- Flexible work schedules during the legislative interim; and
- A generous compensation time policy.

The ongoing COVID-19 pandemic has impacted how and where we do our work. We currently work on a hybrid model, with work in the office required on certain days, and the rest of the time remote. The need for on-site work in this position will vary depending on the needs of the General Assembly. Primarily, on-site work will be required during the legislative session, which runs from mid-January to mid-May. When the legislature is not in session, more flexible remote or hybrid options are available.

Application Process

Please email your application packet with "Economist" in the email subject line to:

LCS.Economist@state.co.us

Application packet. Your application packet must include:

- a cover letter;
- your resume; and
- a list of three professional references (we will notify you before contacting your references).

Incomplete applications will not be considered. Because this position is with the legislative branch, there is no need to fill out the state application for executive branch employment.
